

Food for Thought

Every difficulty comes with accessible grace.

Stop asking for grace and start asking God to show you grace in your situation.

People around you are covered by grace because you are covered by God.

Let them fall off and fall back, because they are not graced for the pursuit.

You can't lose what's for you, but God will adjust the grace for you to appreciate it better.